Back to step 1 Proceed to step 3

Use the add author button to add an author to your abstract.

You can change the order of the authors by using the arrows. Just click on to move up or to move down.

To edit authors' data click the next to the respective author's name. Don't forget to save your changes.

To remove an author from the list click the icon next to the author's name.

Use arrows to move authors up or down in order of appearance. Select the 'pen' icon to edit the author's details. You can only edit authors you have added yourself. Pre-existing authors will not be available for changes. (Only admin can apply changes to pre-existing authors). Click 'cross' icon to delete an author from your abstract.

NOTE: Financial Disclosure information needs to be completed for EACH co-author at the time of submission through the online abstract submission form, however, information can be provided by the submitting author. You will not be able to finish submission if you do not provide disclosure information for each author.

Proceed to next section. The following sections contain a text editor, which allows you to enter the content of your abstract.

IMPORTANT NOTE: The abstract has to be structured as follows

1. Background
2. Methods
3. Results
4. Conclusion

The completion of each section is mandatory.

V. Editing your sections

Please enter your text in the text area below. You can also paste text from your favourite text editor. Please note that all formats will be lost.

To insert special characters click in the text area toolbar.

To save the written text click on the icon and continue writing. You can also proceed to the next step, the text will be saved automatically.

On the bottom of the page there is a word and characters counter. It displays how many words or characters you have already entered.

For abstract submissions you can edit your text within limitations. Enter unformatted text into the editor, using the formatting toolbar for adjustments.

IMPORTANT NOTE: It is strongly recommended to enter or past unformatted text from your text editor (Word is not a text editor). If you past edited text the formatting might get lost or change.

Copy & Paste:

Please be aware that any pre-formatting will be lost on pasting text from other editors (e.g. Microsoft word).

Mozilla Firefox:

Select the 'paste' icon from the toolbar. A window will pop open. Paste the text into this window and hit ok:

Pop up will shut down and unformatted text will be shown within the main text.

Internet Explorer:

No window will pop up. Simply copy text (highlight and ctrl+c) from the editor (e.g. Microsoft word); To paste either ctrl+v or select the paste icon from the toolbar.

Insert Special Characters:

When selecting the cube with special characters, a pop up window will open. Select the character you wish to add to your abstract and it will be inserted into the main text. Pop up window will shut down automatically.

A word count indicator to the bottom right of the main text shows how many words are available in total for the abstract (500) and how many have been used so far. Should you exceed the word limit, you will not be able to submit your abstract. The number indicated at the bottom of the text editor will be highlighted red:

Also when in preview mode an error message will appear to tell you that you are exceeding the word limit. In this case go back and shorten your abstract.

VI. Saving your submission steps

1. Your entries and updates within an individual section are saved every time you click the 'Save' and/or 'Proceed' button. This will also transfer you to the edit screen of the next section.

2. You may proceed to the next step but the system will not let you complete your submission without entering mandatory information.

Please use the 'Logout' button to exit the System. If you just close the browser window without logging out, the system may not record all of your updates.

VII. Previewing your abstract

In order to preview your abstract, click the 'Preview' Button in the top navigation bar or in the navigation on the left side. The preview mode displays your abstract and your selected affirmations. Please note: The option to edit and to complete the abstract is only visible to you, during the submission phase.
