14th World Conference on Lung Cancer

2011 Amsterdam, The Netherlands

The 14th World Conference on Lung Cancer (14th WCLC) will be one of the largest international gatherings of clinicians and scientists in the lung cancer field. The 14th WCLC will attract 7,500+ leaders in the fields of lung cancer including surgeons, medical oncologists, radiation oncologists, pulmonologists, radiologists, pathologists, epidemiologists, basic research scientists, nurses and allied health professionals as well as advocates.

Date: July 3-7, 2011
Location: Amsterdam, The Netherlands
Venue: RAI Convention Center
Web Site: www.2011worldlungcancer.org

Purpose: The 14th WCLC will be a great opportunity for lung cancer professionals from around the world to share the most up-to-date information regarding the science and advances in the treatment of lung cancer. More than 300 lung cancer specialists and over 1,000 abstract presenters from a wide range of disciplines will participate in the Scientific Programme and their presentations will provide delegates with information on the latest developments in basic science and clinical treatment.

The Conference is undoubtedly the best opportunity for networking, sharing the latest information and discussions with the world's leading experts in this field.

Hosts: The Conference has been organized by the Local Organizing Committee Chair Dr. Pieter Postmus and under the auspice of the International Association for the Study of Lung Cancer. The Scientific Programme Committee represents a highly distinguished international group of experts in the field.

CME: The IASLC promotes the study of etiology, epidemiology, prevention, diagnosis, treatment and all other aspects of thoracic oncology and provides education about thoracic oncology to physicians and other professionals in the care of patients with lung cancer and related thoracic disorders. The 14th WCLC is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The nature and scope of the 14th WCLC is to provide educational content in thoracic oncology to meet identified learning needs of its members and program attendees; the target audience is U.S. and international physicians – practitioners, academicians, and clinical researchers – involved in the care of patients with lung cancer; the 14th WCLC is designed to allow attendees to advance their competence and performance in caring for patients with lung cancer; and, the expected results of the 14th WCLC is an increase in competence and performance in relation to the participating physician learner's needs or education gaps.
